COURTNEY STODDEN FINALLY GOT THOSE NEW BREAST IMPLANTS

By Famous Plastic in Boob Job, Breast Augmentation, Breast Implants, Courtney Stodden with 0 comment

Looks like Courtney Stodden finally replaced that over-stuffed bra with the breast implants she has always wanted!

"Heading to Dr Linder's office for a follow-up & feeling good. Woot! (:(.)"

Apparently Courtney decided to go with Dr. Stuart Linder, who is a Beverly Hills plastic surgeon that specializes in breast augmentation.

So just how big did Courtney Stodden go with her new breast implants? Hopefully the 18-year old wannabe star stayed tasteful and didn't go over the top with the size of her new breast implants...

If today is Courtney Stodden's 1-week post breast surgery follow up, then we can expect to see her Twitter page flooded with boobtastic selfies in 1 - 2 weeks, when her bandages come off.

Courtney Stodden before and after breast implant surgery:

The tiny teenager decided to take her natural C-cup up to a massive DD-cup in an attempt to extend the 15-minutes of fame that she so desperately craves.

Courtney's new Barbie Boobs® come compliments of Hollywood plastic surgeon Dr. Stuart Linder and a pair of saline breast implants.

"I love the way my shape looks, it looks more Jessica Rabbit-y, and it just makes me feel more sexy, more like a woman."
